

Office of Student Affairs & Student Support Organizations

Building
a Better Campus Life
at SNU

Office of Student Affairs
Seoul National University

The Office of Student Affairs and SNU's student support organizations work together to help students enjoy a healthy and fulfilling campus life.

01

Supporting a Healthy
Campus Life

Office of Student Affairs — 2

- Division of Student Service
 - Student Service Center
- Division of Scholarship and Welfare
- Center for Students with Disabilities

02

Providing
Student-Centered
Comprehensive
Support Services

Student Support Organizations — 3

- Career Development Center
- Institute for Global Social Responsibility
- Center for Campus Life and Culture
- Institute for Culture and Arts
- Health Service Center
- Center for Sport Development & Promotion
- SNU/POSCO Sports Complex
- Center for Child Educare Service & Research
- Human Rights Center
- Student Residence Halls
 - Gwanak Residence Halls
 - Yeongeon Residence Hall
 - Hamchoon Residence Hall
 - Sangnok Residence Hall

03

Fostering Student Engagement and a Connected
Campus Community

Map — 8

Office of Student Affairs

<https://student.snu.ac.kr>

Division of Student Service

The Division promotes a vibrant campus life by supporting student events, cultural and recreational activities, and student-led initiatives. Through close collaboration with the Student Council and other student organizations, we cultivate an inclusive campus community where students are empowered to participate, lead, and thrive.

☎ 02-880-5052, 5565~6

📍 3rd Floor, Building 60

Student Service Center

The Center offers a convenient one-stop service that provides access to essential supports in one place. From issuing Student ID cards (S-card) to a wide range of administrative services, we are committed to making the student experience more efficient and accessible.

☎ 02-880-5060~2

📍 2nd Floor, Building 67

Division of Scholarship and Welfare

The Division is committed to helping students succeed by providing scholarship opportunities that ease financial burdens and enable them to focus on their academic goals. We also provide a wide range of student welfare services to promote students' well-being and enhance their campus experience.

Scholarships

☎ 02-880-5078~9, 5205~6

📍 2nd Floor, Bldg 60

Welfare

☎ 02-880-5071~2, 5088

📍 2nd Floor, Bldg 60

Center for Students with Disabilities

The Center strives to build an inclusive campus where everyone can learn and grow together. We provide a wide range of support services for students with disabilities, including academic and campus life assistance, and customized educational support programs, helping every student fully participate in university life and achieve their full potential.

☎ 02-880-8787

📍 1st Floor, building 102

Student Support Organizations

Career Development Center

<http://career.snu.ac.kr>

The Center helps students to achieve their career goals through comprehensive career planning and employment support. From the latest recruitment opportunities at leading companies and public institutions to one-on-one career counseling, employment coaching, and employer engagement programs, we provide the resources and guidance students need for a successful transition from university to the workplace.

☎ 02-880-1354

📍 2nd Floor, Building 152-1

Institute for Global Social Responsibility

<https://snusr.snu.ac.kr>

As the university's hub for social responsibility, we inspire students to make a positive impact through education, volunteerism, and community engagement. By offering diverse service-learning and volunteer programs, we empower students to grow as socially responsible leaders.

☎ 02-880-2990

📍 2nd Floor, Building 153

Student Support Organizations

Center for Campus Life and Culture

<https://snucounsel.snu.ac.kr>

The Center provides a wide range of professional support services, including psychological counseling and competency development to help students enjoy a healthy and meaningful university experience. We empower students to better understand themselves, realize their potential, and grow personally. The center conducts research on students' campus experiences to enhance support environments to better meet students' needs.

☎ 02-880-5501

📍 5th Floor, Building 63

Institute for Culture and Arts

<https://culture.snu.ac.kr>

The Institute nurtures the next generation of cultural leaders. By utilizing diverse venues on and off campus including Power Plant and Pungsan Madang, we promote collaborations and exchanges across disciplines to provide students and members of the local community with opportunities to experiment and experience creative cultural contents.

☎ 02-880-5891

📍 Room 411, Building 152-1

Health Service Center

<https://health4u.snu.ac.kr>

The Center is committed to promoting students' health and well-being through comprehensive healthcare services. Working with a network of medical professionals, we provide medical consultations, health screenings, and preventive care. We also connect students with appropriate medical services based on results of individual screening.

☎ 02-880-5338

📍 3rd~4th Floors, Building 63

Center for Sport Development & Promotion

<https://athletics.snu.ac.kr>

The Center fosters a healthy and active campus by offering inclusive sports and recreational programs for the entire university community. From supporting sports clubs, intramural competitions, and campus events to managing athletic facilities, we provide opportunities for everyone to stay active, connected, and well.

☎ 02-880-7809
📍 Room 202, Building 71

SNU/POSCO Sports Complex

<https://spolex.snu.ac.kr>

The Complex inspires healthy and active lifestyles by offering outstanding sports facilities and diverse fitness programs for the university community. Our complex includes a naturally lit swimming pool, an indoor golf facility with simulators, and versatile fitness and training spaces. Led by highly qualified instructors with specialized professional certifications, our programs provide a safe, engaging, and rewarding fitness experience for everyone.

☎ 02-880-6980
📍 Building 71-2

Center for Child Educare Service & Research

<https://kidshome.snu.ac.kr>

As a university-affiliated childcare center, we provide high-quality childcare services that allow university members to focus on their professional responsibilities with confidence. Guided by a play-based curriculum that values children's autonomy, we support holistic development and foster an appreciation for Korean culture and values. We also contribute to the advancement of research and best practices in early childhood education, childcare, and child welfare.

☎ 02-880-5807
📍 Building 941-1

Human Rights Center

<https://hrc.snu.ac.kr>

The Center fosters a safe, respectful, and inclusive campus by protecting the rights and dignity of every member of the university community. We provide counseling, investigations, and appropriate support for cases involving sexual harassment, sexual violence, and human rights violations. Our Ombudsman, with extensive expertise and experience in human rights and university administration, provides impartial assistance in resolving grievances and complaints within the university community.

☎ Case Counseling
02-880-2422~6,
Grievance Assistance
02-880-2007
📍 3rd Floor, Building 153

Gwanak Residence Halls

<https://snudorm.snu.ac.kr>

Located on the Gwanak Campus, the Gwanak Residence Hall is home to approximately 6,000 students representing more than 100 countries. We provide safe, comfortable, and welcoming living spaces while offering diverse cultural, educational, and community programs that enrich the residential experience.

☎ Administration Office
02-880-5401
📍 Basement Level 1, Building 900

Yeongeon Residence Halls

<https://meddorm.snu.ac.kr>

Located on the Yeongeon Campus, the Yeongeon Residence Hall provides comfortable and convenient accommodation for students and researchers in the College of Medicine and the School of Dentistry.

☎ 02-740-8059
📍 Building 26, Yeongeon Campus

Hamchoon Residence Halls

<https://hamchunsa.snu.ac.kr>

The Hamchoon Residence Hall on the Yeongeon Campus provides a stable living environment for College of Nursing students to focus on their studies. In addition to rooms, it offers shared facilities including self-study rooms, computer rooms, seminar rooms, and a fitness center.

☎ 02-740-8461
📍 Building 18, Yeongeon Campus

Sangnok Residence Halls

<https://gsiat.snu.ac.kr>

Sangnok Residence Hall on the Pyeongchang Campus offers a safe, comfortable living environment. By providing a stable residential community, we help students focus on their studies, pursue their goals with confidence, and enjoy a rewarding university experience.

☎ 033-339-5684
📍 Buildings 380 and 381, Pyeongchang Campus

Office of Student Affairs

- 1 Student Support Division · B60, 3F
- 2 Student Service Center · B67, 2F
- 3 Scholarship and Welfare Division · B60, 2F
- 4 Center for Students with Disabilities · B102, 1F

Student Support Organizations

- 1 Career Development Center
· B152-1, 2F
- 2 Institute for Global Social Responsibility · B153, 2F
- 3 Center for Campus Life and Culture · B63, 5F
- 4 Institute for Culture and Arts
· B152-1, R411
- 5 Health Service Center · B63, 3-4F
- 6 Center for Sport Development & Promotion · B71, R202
- 7 SNU/POSCO Sports Complex · B71-2
- 8 Center for Child Educare Service & Research · B941-1
- 9 Human Rights Center · B153, 3F
- 10 Gwanak Residence Halls Administration Office · B900, B1F

* B: Building
F: Floor
R: Room

Map

The SNU Office of Student Affairs and student support organizations are always here for you.

